11	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	CASE NO. 1:22-MJ-00197
12	Plaintiff,	STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL AC
13	v.	FINDINGS AND ORDER
14	CHRISTIAN CLAUSTRO,	DATE: August 9, 2023 TIME: 2:00 p.m.
15	Defendant.
16
17	This case is set for a preliminary hearing on August 9, 2023. The parties agree and stipulate to
18	continue the preliminary hearing until October 31, 2023. Defense counsel requested the government to
19	consider deferred prosecution. The government is in the process of consulting with an expert to assist in
20	evaluating the circumstances that may make the case appropriate for the defendant's requested
21	disposition. The parties need additional time work through the analysis.
22	STIPULATION
23	Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and
24	through defendant's counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:
25	1. By previous order, this matter was set for preliminary hearing on August 9, 2023.
26	2. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the preliminary hearing until
27	October 31, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. and to exclude time between August 9, 2023, and October 31, 2023.

The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

3.

- a) The parties are discussing and conducting further investigation into preindictment matters, including consideration of embarking on the process to request deferred prosecution, and need additional time to conclude that process.
- b) The government represents that discovery consists of reports, and that an initial dissemination of discovery has been provided to defense, consisting of National Park Service Reports and the defendant's criminal history.
- c) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with her client, conduct further investigation, and discuss charges with the government. Defense has continued to investigate various issues related to the facts and a resolution since the last continuance was granted. Counsel for defendant also requested the government to consider deferred prosecution, and the government is gathering information necessary to do so.
- d) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
 - e) The government does not object to the continuance.
- f) Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c) and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held "no later than 14 days after initial appearance if the defendant is in custody," unless the defendant consents and there is a "showing of good cause". Here, the defendant consents and there is good cause as set forth herein.
- g) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in an indictment or trial within the original dates prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.
- h) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which an indictment must be filed and within which a trial must commence, the time period of August 9, 2023 to October 31, 2023, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C.§ 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy
